			Box 14 to the parties named therein and shall keep	106
			those parties advised of any alteration in expected load/	107
			discharge readiness.	108
3.	Cancelling	43
	(a) The Charterers shall have the option of cancelling	44
	the Charter Party if the Vessel has not tendered notice	45
	of readiness to load on or before 23.59 hours on the	46
	cancelling date stated in Box 11.	47
	(b) Should the Owners anticipate that, despite the	48
	exercise of due diligence, the Vessel will not be ready	49
	to load by the cancelling date, they shall notify the	50
	Charterers thereof without delay stating the expected	51
	date of the Vessel's readiness to load and asking	52
	whether the Charterers will exercise their option of	53
	cancelling the Charter Party, or agree to a new	54
	cancelling date. The Charterers must declare such	55
	option within 2 working days as applied at the	56
	Charterers' place of business after the receipt of the	57
	Owners' notice. If the Charterers do not exercise their	58
	option of cancelling, then this Charter Party shall be	59
	deemed to be amended such that the seventh day	60
	after the new readiness date stated in the Owners'	61
	notification to the Charterers shall be the new	62
	cancelling date. The provisions of sub-clause (b) shall	63
	operate only once, and in case of the Vessel's further	64
	delay, the Charterers shall have the option of cancelling	65
	the Charter Party if the Vessel has not tendered notice	66
			8. Port of Loading, Voyage, Port of Discharge	109

			(b) The Vessel shall carry the cargo with due	113
			despatch to the port(s)/berth(s) of discharge stated in	114
			Box 16. If the Charterers have the right to order the	115
			Vessel to discharge at one or more ports out of several	116
			ports named or within a specific range, the Charterers	117
			shall declare the actual port(s) of discharge to be	118
			inserted in the Bills of Lading prior to the arrival of the	119
			Vessel at the first port of loading.	120
			(c) Unless the loading/discharging port(s)/berth(s) are	121
			specifically mentioned herein, the Charterers warrant	122
			the safety of port(s)/berth(s) nominated and that the	123
			Vessel will be loaded and discharged always afloat.	124
			(d) The Vessel shall be left in seaworthy trim for	125
			shifting between berths and ports.	126
			(e) Unless otherwise agreed, loading and/or dis-	127
			charging at two or more ports shall be effected in	128
			geographical rotation.	129

PART II
COAL-OREVOY Standard Coal and Ore Charter Party

9. Notices of Readiness, Laytime, Demurrage/Despatch Money	130	prevent the Vessel's loading, discharging or the shifting between loading/discharging berths of the Vessel; (iii) if so provided for in Clause 16.	198
(a) Notice of Readiness	131		199
(i) At each port of loading and discharging notice of readiness shall be given to the Charterers or their Agents when the Vessel is in all respects ready to load/discharge at the loading/discharging berth. If the Vessel is a combination carrier, and has carried liquid cargo on its previous voyage, the Vessel shall possess a valid gas free certificate on tendering notice of readiness.	133	(ii) Time shall not count as laytime or as time on demurrage whilst Vessel actually moving from waiting place whether at or off the port or from a lightening place off the port, until the Vessel is securely moored at the designated loading/discharging berth.	201
(ii) If a loading/discharging berth is not designated or if such designated berth is not available upon the Vessel's arrival at or off the port, notice of readiness may be given upon arrival at the waiting place at or off the port. However, if at the time the loading/discharging berth becomes available, the Vessel is prevented from proceeding to the berth due to her inefficiency, weather, tidal conditions, strikes of tugs or pilots or mandatory regulations applicable to the Vessel, time shall not count from that time until such hindrance(s) has (have) ceased.	134	(iii) Time lost due to inefficiency or any other cause attributable to the Vessel, her Master, her crew or the Owners shall not count as notice time or as laytime or as time on demurrage to the extent that loading or discharging or the matters covered by sub-clause (d)(i) are thereby affected.	202
(iii) Notice of readiness may be given on any day at any time.	135	(iv) If pursuant to Clause 10 (m) the Vessel has to vacate the loading/ discharging berth, notice time or laytime or time on demurrage shall not count from that time until she be in all respects ready to load/discharge and notification has been given to the Charterers accordingly.	203
(b) Laytime	136	(v) If due to the matters referred to in sub-clauses (c)(iii) or (c)(iv), the Vessel loses her turn, such time shall count again only as from 24 hours after notification of the Vessel's new readiness has been given to the Charterers or when loading/discharging resumes whichever may be the sooner.	204
(i) The laytime shall commence when notice of readiness has been given and after expiration of notice time, if any, provided for in Box 17. Should the Vessel arrive at the (first) loading port and be ready to load before the date stated in Box 9, the Charterers shall have the right to start loading. The Charterers shall also have the right to load/discharge before the expiration of notice time. In either event, during such periods only time actually used shall count as laytime or as time on demurrage.	137	(d) Termination of Laytime	205
(ii) The notice time, if any, shall only apply at first or sole loading and discharging port, respectively.	138	(i) Laytime/Demurrage shall stop counting on completion of: (a) loading/discharging at the relevant port, (b) cargo documentation and/or draft survey for determination of cargo weight, (c) repairs to stevedore damage under Clause 12(b), whichever may be the later.	206
(iii) If total laytime for loading and discharging has been agreed in Box 18 notice time, if any, at port of discharge shall be applied unless the Vessel is already on demurrage.	139	(ii) If required, the Vessel shall leave the berth as soon as possible within her control on completion of loading/discharging, failing which the Charterers shall be entitled to proved damages. However, if the Vessel then has to wait for reasons (b) and/or (c) as per sub-clause (d)(i), there must be a place available at which she can safely wait, and any extra expenses shall be for the Charterers' account.	207
*) (iv) Separate laytime. - The cargo shall be loaded within the number of hours/days of 24 consecutive hours or at the average loading rate per day of 24 consecutive hours as stated in Box 18a). The cargo shall be discharged within the number of hours/days of 24 consecutive hours or at the average discharging rate per day of 24 consecutive hours as stated in Box 18b).	140	(e) Demurrage/Despatch Money	208
*) (v) Total laytime. -The cargo shall be loaded and discharged within the number of hours/days of 24 consecutive hours stated in Box 18c).	141	(i) Demurrage accrued under this Charter Party shall be considered as constituting liquidated damages for exceeding the laytime provided for herein. However, if the Vessel has been on demurrage for 15 days or more and no cargo has been loaded, the Owners shall have the option of cancelling this Charter Party. No claim which the Owners may otherwise have against the Charterers shall be prejudiced by the Owners exercising their option of cancelling.	209
(vi) In the case of loading and/or discharging at more than one berth, laytime shall run continuously as if loading/discharging had been effected at one berth only but without prejudice to sub-clause (c).	142	(ii) Demurrage shall be due and payable by the Charterers day by day at the rate specified in Boxes 21 and 22 and in the manner provided for in Box 28.	210
(vii) Notwithstanding any other terms of this Charter Party, in any event laytime will start counting at the latest upon commencement of loading or discharging of the cargo from the Vessel.	143	(iii) Despatch money, if agreed upon in Box 23, shall be paid promptly by the Owners to the Charterers at half the demurrage rate or as otherwise agreed upon in Box 23 for laytime saved in loading and/or discharging.	211
*)Indicate alternative agreed in Box 18.	144		212
(c) Suspension of Laytime	145		213
(i) Unless the Vessel is on demurrage, laytime shall not count (i) during periods excepted as per Boxes 19 and 20, unless used, in which case only time actually used shall count; (ii) for the duration of bad weather or sea conditions which actually	146		214

PART II
COAL-OREVOY Standard Coal and Ore Charter Party

(b) If the Charterers have not nominated a suitable loading or discharging berth on the Vessel's arrival at the port, or if such berth should not be available, the Vessel is to wait at a suitable place at or off the port. The Charterers shall have the right to designate a safe waiting place, otherwise the Master shall choose a waiting place using due diligence to minimize extra shifting costs provided for in sub-clause (d).	265 266 267 268 269 270 271 272	ordered by Port Authorities or any other Governmental Agencies, the Charterers to pay any extra expenses incurred. Officers' and crew's overtime charges always to be paid by the Owners.	333 334 335 336
(c) The Charterers shall have the right to load and/or discharge at two berths at each port or place subject to sub-clause (d).	273 274 275	(m) In the event of loading/discharging being impossible due to inefficiency or any other cause attributable to the Vessel, her Master, her crew or the Owners and such impossibility continuing for more than three consecutive hours, the Charterers shall have the right to order the Vessel to vacate the berth and shifting from and back to berth shall be at the Owners' expense and time.	337 338 339 340 341 342 343 344
(d) Shifting . - Costs of shifting the Vessel between berths at port(s) of loading and port(s) of discharge, including bunkers, shall be for the Charterers' account. Other costs on board the Vessel including wages and officers' and crew's overtime charges to be for the Owners' account.	276 277 278 279 280 281	11. Bulk Carrier Safety Clause	345
(e) The Owners or the Master shall in due time prior to commencement of loading submit to the Charterers (or their nominees) at the loading port a loading plan which shall be based on a reasonable number of shiftings between hatches and also meet applicable rules and regulations, including IMO Code(s). The Charterers shall inform the Owners/Master of any special composition of cargo required in sufficient time to permit the Owners/Master to work out and submit such loading plan.	282 283 284 285 286 287 288 289 290 291	(a) The Charterers shall instruct the terminal operators or their representatives to co-operate with the Master in completing the IMO SHIP/SHORE SAFETY CHECKLIST (IMO Resolution A.862(20) – Code of Practice for the Safe Loading and Unloading of Bulk Carriers (BLU Code) Appendix 3) and shall arrange all cargo operations strictly in accordance with the guidelines set out therein.	346 347 348 349 350 351 352 353
(f) Prior to loading, the Vessel's holds shall be adequately cleaned for loading the contracted cargo.	292 293	(b) In addition to the above and notwithstanding any provision in this Charter Party in respect of loading/discharging rates, the Charterers shall instruct the terminal operators to load/dischARGE the Vessel in accordance with the loading/discharging plan, which shall be approved by the Master with due regard to the Vessel's draught, trim, stability, stress or any other factor which may affect the safety of the Vessel.	354 355 356 357 358 359 360 361
(g) The Charterers shall load and spout-trim the cargo as per the loading plan, free of any risk, liability and expense to the Vessel. Any extra trimming and/or levelling required by the Master or Owners shall be performed at the Owners' expense and any time lost thereby shall not count as laytime/demurrage. Discharging, including shovel cleaning, shall be effected by the Charterers free of any risk, liability and expense to the Vessel.	294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302	(c) At any time during cargo operations the Master may, if he deems it necessary for reasons of safety of the Vessel, instruct the terminal operators or their representatives to slow down or stop the loading or discharging.	362 363 364 365 366
(h) Warping . - The Vessel shall warp, as reasonably required by the Charterers, solely for the purpose of making any hatch or hatches available to the loading/discharging appliances at that berth, and costs on board the Vessel including bunkers, wages and officers' and crew's overtime charges shall be for the Owners' account. However, the costs of any necessary outside services shall be for the Charterers' account. Laytime or time on demurrage shall not be interrupted thereby.	303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311 312	(d) Compliance with the provisions of this Clause shall not affect the counting of laytime.	367 368
(i) The Vessel shall work day and night and during any time as may be excepted as per Box 19 and Box 20, as required by the Charterers.	313 314 315	12. Stevedore Damage	369
(j) The Vessel shall, at her own risk and expense, open and close hatches prior to and after loading/discharging and also during loading/discharging as may be required by the Charterers to protect the cargo, provided local shore regulations permit. If same, however, is not permitted by local shore labour regulations, shore labour is to be employed by the Charterers at their risk, liability and expense. The Vessel shall furnish and give free use of sufficient light for deck and holds, as on board.	316 317 318 319 320 321 322 323 324 325	(a) The Charterers shall be responsible for damage (beyond ordinary wear and tear) to any part of the Vessel caused by Stevedores at both ends. Such damage, as soon as apparent, shall be notified immediately by the Master to the Charterers or their port agents and to their Stevedores. The Owners/Master shall endeavour to obtain the Stevedores' written acknowledgment of the damage caused.	370 371 372 373 374 375 376 377
(k) The Charterers shall have the right to order the Vessel to leave without having loaded a full cargo, always provided that the Vessel be in seaworthy condition and that the Charterers pay deadfreight according to Clause 15(f).	326 327 328 329 330	(b) Stevedore damage affecting seaworthiness or the proper working of the Vessel and/or her equipment shall be repaired without delay before the Vessel sails from the port where such damage was caused and shall be paid for by the Charterers. Other repairs shall be done before the completion of the voyage where practicable, or otherwise at a place mutually agreed between the parties. All costs of such repairs shall also be for the Charterers' account and any time lost shall be for the account of and shall be paid to the Owners by the Charterers at the demurrage rate.	378 379 380 381 382 383 384 385 386 387 388
(l) Overtime for loading and discharging to be for the account of the party ordering the same. If overtime be	331 332	13. Dues, Taxes and Charges, Extra Insurance	389
		(a) On the Vessel . - The Owners shall pay all dues, duties, taxes and other charges customarily levied on the Vessel, howsoever the amount thereof may be assessed.	390 391 392 393
		(b) On the cargo . - The Charterers shall pay all dues, duties, taxes and charges levied on the cargo at the port of loading/discharging, howsoever the amount thereof may be assessed.	394 395 396 397

PART II
COAL-OREVOY Standard Coal and Ore Charter Party

(c) On the freight. - Taxes levied on the freight shall be paid by the Owners or the Charterers as agreed in Box 24.	398 399 400	Bills of Lading for any deadfreight due. If the Shippers/ Suppliers state in writing that no more cargo will be shipped, the Owners shall not need to have any such statement confirmed by the Charterers.	464 465 466 467
(d) Extra Insurance. - Any extra insurance on cargo actually paid by the Charterers owing to Vessel's age, class, flag or ownership shall be for the Owners' account and may be deducted from the freight. The Charterers shall furnish evidence of payment supporting any such deduction. Unless a maximum amount has been agreed in Part I, such extra insurance shall not exceed the lowest extra premium which would be charged for the Vessel and voyage in the London insurance market.	401 402 403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410
14. Agents	411	16. Strike and Other Hindrances	468
At the port(s) of loading the Vessel shall be consigned to the Agents as stated in Box 25 and at the port(s) of discharge to the Agents as stipulated in Box 26, the Owners always paying the customary fees.	412 413 414 415	(a) If there is a strike or lock-out or any other cause referred to in Clause 24 (hereinafter the "hindrance") affecting or preventing the actual loading of the cargo, or any part of it, when the Vessel is ready to proceed from her last port or at any time during the voyage to the port or ports of loading or after her arrival there, the Master or the Owners may ask the Charterers to declare, that they agree to reckon the laydays as if there were no hindrance. Unless the Charterers have given such declaration in writing (by telegram, if necessary) within 24 hours, the Owners shall have the option of cancelling this Charter Party. If part cargo has already been loaded, the Owners must proceed with same, (freight payable on loaded quantity only) having liberty to complete with other cargo on the way for their own account.	469 470 471 472 473 474 475 476 477 478 479 480 481 482 483 484
15. Freight	416	(b) If there is a hindrance affecting or preventing the actual discharging of the cargo on or after the Vessel's arrival at or off port of discharge and same has not been settled within 48 hours, the Charterers shall have the option of keeping the Vessel waiting until such hindrance is at an end against paying half demurrage after expiration of the time provided for discharging until the hindrance has come to an end and thereafter full demurrage shall be payable until the completion of discharging, or of ordering the Vessel to a safe port where she can safely discharge without risk of being detained by a hindrance. Such orders to be given within 48 hours after the Master or the Owners have given notice to the Charterers of the hindrance affecting the discharge. On delivery of the cargo at such port, all conditions of this Charter Party and of the Bill of Lading shall apply and the Vessel shall receive the same freight as if she had discharged at the original port of destination, except that if the distance to the substituted port exceeds 100 nautical miles, the freight on the cargo delivered at the substituted port to be increased in proportion.	485 486 487 488 489 490 491 492 493 494 495 496 497 498 499 500 501 502 503 504 505 506
The freight at the rate stated in Box 27 shall be calculated on intaken quantity.	417 418	(c) Except for the obligations described above, neither the Charterers nor the Owners shall be responsible for the consequences of hindrances preventing or affecting the actual loading or discharging of the cargo.	507 508 509 510 511 512
(a) Prepaid. - If according to Boxes 27 or 28 freight is to be paid on shipment, it shall be deemed earned and non-returnable Vessel and/or cargo lost or not lost. Bills of Lading showing "Freight prepaid" or the like shall not be released until the freight has been duly paid.	419 420 421 422 423 424	17. General Ice Clause	513
(b) After shipment. - If according to Box 28 freight shall be payable within a number of days after shipment, the freight shall be deemed earned as per sub-clause (a). In such case Bills of Lading shall not be endorsed "Freight prepaid" or the like, unless the freight has been paid.	425 426 427 428 429 430	The Vessel shall not be obliged to force ice but, subject to the Owners' approval and having due regard to its size, construction and class, may follow ice-breakers when reasonably required.	514 515 516
(c) Partly on Delivery. - If according to Boxes 27 or 28 a percentage of the freight shall be payable as per sub-clauses (a) or (b) the balance shall be paid as per sub-clause (c). However, in such case the total freight shall be deemed earned as per sub-clause (a) and the Charterers shall not have the option referred to in sub-clause (d)(i).	431 432 433 434 435 436 437	(a) Port of Loading	517
(d) On Delivery. - If according to Boxes 27 or 28 freight is payable at destination or on right and true delivery of the cargo, it shall not be deemed earned until the cargo is thus delivered.	438 439 440 441	(i) If at any time after setting out on the approach voyage the Vessel's passage is impeded by ice, or if on arrival the loading port is inaccessible by reason of ice, the Master or Owners shall notify the Charterers thereof and request them to nominate a safe and accessible alternative port. If the Charterers fail within 48 running hours, Sundays and holidays included, to make such nomination or agree to reckon laytime as if the port named in the Charter Party were accessible or declare that they cancel the Charter Party, the Owners shall have the option of cancelling the	518 519 520 521 522 523 524 525 526 527 528 529
(e) On Delivered Weight. - When the freight is payable on delivery of cargo the Charterers shall have the option of paying freight on delivered weight, provided such option be declared in writing before breaking bulk and the weight be ascertained by official weighing machine, otherwise by joint draught survey. The Charterers shall pay all costs incurred in connection with weighing or draught survey. The Owners shall be at liberty to appoint check clerks at their own expense.	442 443 444 445 446 447 448 449 450
(f) Deductions. - The freight shall be paid in cash without discount in the manner described in Box 28. The Charterers shall only be entitled to deduct from the freight undisputed despatch money and extra insurance, provided properly documented, as per Clause 13(d).	451 452 453 454 455 456
(g) Deadfreight. - If the Charterers fail to supply a cargo as specified in Box 13, deadfreight shall be payable but the Charterers shall not be bound to supply cargo in excess of any quantity stated by the Owners as the Vessel's capacity made available to the Charterers. The laytime shall be calculated on that quantity. The Owners/Master shall be entitled to clause	457 458 459 460 461 462 463

(ii) If at any loading port the Master considers that there is a danger of the Vessel being frozen in, and provided that the Master or Owners immediately notify the Charterers thereof, the Vessel may leave with cargo loaded on board and proceed to the nearest safe and ice free place and there await the Charterers' nomination of a safe and accessible alternative port within 24 running hours, Sundays and holidays excluded, of the Master's or Owners' notification. If the Charterers fail to nominate such alternative port, the Vessel may proceed to any port(s), whether or not on the customary route for the chartered voyage, to complete with cargo for the Owners' account.	534 535 536 537 538 539 540 541 542 543 544 545 546 547 548
(b) Port of Discharge	549
(i) If the voyage to the discharging port is impeded by ice, or if on arrival the discharging port is inaccessible by reason of ice, the Master or Owners shall notify the Charterers thereof. In such case, the Charterers shall have the option of keeping the Vessel waiting until the port is accessible against paying compensation in an amount equivalent to the rate of demurrage or of ordering the Vessel to a safe and accessible alternative port. If the Charterers fail to make such declaration within 48 running hours, Sundays and holidays included, of the Master or Owners having given notice to the Charterers, the Master may proceed without further notice to the nearest safe and accessible port and there discharge the cargo.	550 551 552 553 554 555 556 557 558 559 560 561 562 563 564 565		(b) If at any time before the Vessel commences loading, it appears that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, performance of the Charter Party, or any part of it, may expose, or is likely to expose, the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel to War Risks, the Owners may give notice to the Charterers cancelling this Charter Party, or may refuse to perform such part of it as may expose, or may be likely to expose, the Vessel, her cargo, crew or other persons on board the Vessel to War Risks; provided always that if this Charter Party provides that loading or discharging is to take place within a range of ports, and at the port or ports nominated by the Charterers the Vessel, her cargo, crew, or other persons on board the Vessel may be exposed, or may be likely to be exposed, to War Risks, the Owners shall first require the Charterers to nominate any other safe port which lies within the range for loading or discharging, and may only cancel this Charter Party if the Charterers shall not have nominated such safe port or ports within 48 hours of receipt of notice of such requirement.	611 612 613 614 615 616 617 618 619 620 621 622 623 624 625 626 627 628 629 630 631 632
(ii) If at any discharging port the Master considers that there is a danger of the Vessel being frozen in, and provided that the Master or Owners immediately notify the Charterers thereof, the Vessel may leave with cargo remaining on board and proceed to the nearest safe and ice free place and there await the Charterers' nomination of a safe and accessible alternative port within 24 running hours, Sundays and holidays excluded, of the Master's or Owners' notification. If the Charterers fail to nominate such alternative port, the Vessel may proceed to the nearest safe and accessible port and there discharge the remaining cargo.	566 567 568 569 570 571 572 573 574 575 576 577 578 579		(c) The Owners shall not be required to continue to load cargo for any voyage, or to sign Bills of Lading for any port or place, or to proceed or continue on any voyage, or on any part thereof, or to proceed through any canal or waterway, or to proceed to or remain at any port or place whatsoever, where it appears, either after the loading of the cargo commences, or at any stage of the voyage thereafter before the discharge of the cargo is completed, that, in the reasonable judgement of the Master and/or the Owners, the Vessel, her cargo (or any part thereof), crew or other persons on board the Vessel (or any one or more of them) may be, or are likely to be, exposed to War Risks. If it should so appear, the Owners may by notice request the Charterers to nominate a safe port for the discharge of the cargo or any part thereof, and if within 48 hours of the receipt of such notice, the Charterers shall not have nominated such a port, the Owners may discharge the cargo at any safe port of their choice (including the port of loading) in complete fulfilment of the Charter Party. The Owners shall be entitled to recover from the Charterers the extra expenses of such discharge and, if the discharge takes place at any port other than the loading port, to receive the full freight as though the cargo had been carried to the discharging port and if the extra distance exceeds 100 miles, to additional freight which shall be the same percentage of the freight contracted for as the percentage which the extra distance represents to the distance of the normal and customary route, the Owners having a lien on the cargo for such expenses and freight.	633 634 635 636 637 638 639 640 641 642 643 644 645 646 647 648 649 650 651 652 653 654 655 656 657 658 659 660 661 662 663
(iii) On delivery of the cargo other than at the port(s) named in the Charter Party, all conditions of the Bill of Lading shall apply and the Vessel shall receive the same freight as if discharge had been at the original port(s) of destination, except that if the distance of the substituted port(s) exceeds 100 nautical miles, the freight on the cargo delivered at the substituted port(s) shall be increased proportionately.	580 581 582 583 584 585 586 587 588
